

CONFERENCE

Climate Change: towards an ambitious agreement in Copenhagen?

November 19th, 2009
10.00am-1.00pm
Room 6Q1
European Parliament, Brussels

AGENDA

Chaired by:

Struan Stevenson, MEP, Chair of the Intergroup "Climate Change, Biodiversity and Sustainable Development"

Opening statement

Olivier Deleuze, Director of the UNEP Brussels Office

CO2 emissions reduction: which commitments for Developed and Emerging countries?

Artur Runge-Metzger, Head of Unit - Climate Change Strategy and International Negotiation, Monitoring of EU Action, DG ENV, European Commission

Louis Bono, Counsellor for Energy, Environment, Science & Technology, Mission of the United States of America to the EU

LI Xiangfeng, First Secretary, Political section, Mission of China to the European Union

Jason Anderson, Head of European Climate and Energy Policy, WWF

Debate

What funding amounts and governance for adaptation and mitigation measures?

Zofia Tucinska, Counsellor for Climate change, Waste and recycling, Air quality, Environment technology, Swedish EU Presidency

M.K. Lokesh, Deputy Chief of Mission, Embassy of India to the European Communities

Patrick McMullan, Advisor - Mission of the Republic of Maldives to the European Union

Her Excellency Ms. Ismat Jahan, Ambassador of Bangladesh

Debate

A comprehensive agreement in Copenhagen?

Biodiversity and ecosystem-services: an issue marginalised in the negotiations?

Neville Ash, Head, Ecosystem Management Programme, IUCN

Focus on agriculture

Antonia Andugar, Senior Policy Advisor, COPA-COGECA

Alain-Dominique Quintart, Director for EU Policies, Syngenta

Focus on Reducing Emissions from Deforestation and Forest Degradation

Valérie Merckx, Policy Officer - Land use, land use change and forestry issues and follow-up on partnerships with Latin America, DG ENV, European Commission

Debate

Conclusions by the Chair:

Struan Stevenson, MEP, Chair of the Intergroup "Climate Change, Biodiversity and Sustainable Development"